Business as usual for Jetstar services

Jetstar advises its flights will not be impacted by the precautionary grounding of the Qantas fleet.

Passengers are encouraged to visit Jetstar.com to check the status of their flight.

Jetstar has limited capacity on its flights this weekend. Opportunities to increase capacity to accommodate more passengers are currently being investigated. Safety remains Jetstar's number one priority.

All Jetstar staff are being advised to come to work as usual and will be paid as usual.

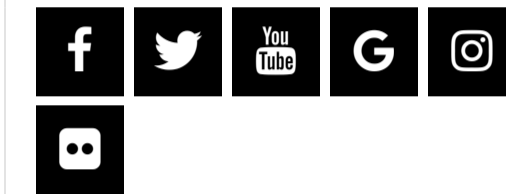

Please check Jetstar's Facebook and Twitter accounts for additional updates as they become available.

About Jetstar

About Jetstar Group

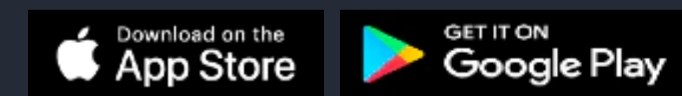

Jetstar first took to the skies in 2004 and has since flown more than 350 million customers across an extensive international and domestic network. The Jetstar Group is made up of Jetstar Airways (subsidiary of the Qantas Group) in Australia and New Zealand, Jetstar Asia in Singapore, and Jetstar Japan in Japan. A leading low-fares airline, Jetstar is committed to offering everyday low fares to enable more people to fly to more places, more often. As one of Asia Pacific's fastest-growing airline brands, Jetstar was voted Best Low-Cost Airline in Asia Pacific in 2021 and was recognized for its excellent flight safety records and services when listed on the "2022 World's Top 10 LCC" released by Airline Ratings.
