Earthquake in Christchurch and Jetstar services 1230

Jetstar wishes to provide a further update on the status of our New Zealand operations as a result of yesterday's earthquake.

Christchurch International Airport is now open and Jetstar has recommenced its scheduled domestic and international operations to / from the Airport.

Our first domestic flight into Christchurch arrived at 1130 hours local today.

Jetstar's first departing international service out of Christchurch will be Jetstar Flight JQ 166 Christchurch-Melbourne, scheduled to depart Christchurch at 1525 local and arrive into Melbourne Airport at 1715 (515pm Melbourne local time) this evening.

The first arriving Jetstar international services into Christchurch will be Jetstar Flight JQ 7101 (Melbourne-Christchurch), scheduled to arrive at 1945 (745pm) local time.

Beyond our regular scheduled services for Christchurch, Jetstar is already operating additional domestic and Trans Tasman flights to/from Christchurch to assist with customer recovery. (See background).

At this point in time, all flights departing Christchurch today are close to full.

Continuation of flexible fare arrangements for Jetstar Christchurch services

For affected customers and those undertaking near travel from/to Christchurch until and including Friday 25 February 2011, Jetstar continues to offer full flexibility in travel including refunds, re-routing or changes to travel dates/times for no fee.

Travel must be taken prior to 11 April 2011.

Jetstar Telephone Reservations can be contacted on 0800 800 995 (within New Zealand) and 131 538 (within Australia). Jetstar.com will be regularly updated with the latest information.

Given the demand for seats to/from Christchurch, priority today and tomorrow will be given to existing customers who have had their recent travel deferred and to customers requiring essential travel.
