Jetstar Offers Free Return Flights

Jetstar has today launched one of its biggest ever sales with more than 200,000 free return flights available to dozens of destinations including Hawaii, Bali, Vietnam, Thailand, Japan, Gold Coast and Perth.

Customers can book a return trip and only pay for the departing flight. The fares are available for selected flights on almost 80 domestic and international routes departing from 18 Australian cities.

Jetstar CEO Gareth Evans said the sale was launching today to mark 14 years since the airline commenced operations.

“Since we launched Jetstar in May 2004, with 14 aircraft flying to 13 destinations we have grown to more than 130 aircraft flying to more than 85 destinations across Australia, Asia and the Pacific,” Mr Evans said.

“We are famous for our low fares and last year we sold 24 million seats - or two thirds of all seats sold - for less than $100.

“It’s fitting that we celebrate our birthday with one of our biggest sales on record, giving travellers the opportunity to take a holiday and return for free.”
