Flexible options

With our Fly Flex policy, if you book domestic or international travel through jetstar.com between 17 September and 31 December 2021, we'll waive the change fee if you decide to change the date of your travel. When you're ready to rebook, you'll need to cover any Fare Difference in your new booking, and you will need to make the change before your flight opens for check-in at the airport.

Plus, if customers are affected by changes to border restrictions, they will always be able to get a credit voucher to the full value of their booking. Depending on the circumstances, cash refunds or free changes to flight dates or times may also be available. Terms and Conditions apply.

Melbourne to Singapore flights announced

The sale comes as Jetstar's international restart plans are well underway, with the airline today confirming it will recommence flights between Melbourne and Singapore when international travel resumes from mid-December 2021.

Operating four times per week by the Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner fleet, this will mark the first time Jetstar has flown this route since exiting the route in late 2019.

Jetstar Asia will also recommence flights between Singapore and Darwin from December 2021, with the three per week service operated by an Airbus A320.

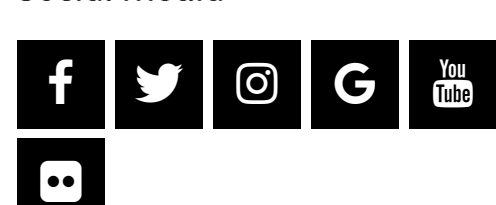

Flights between Melbourne and Singapore are available from 16 December 2021 and are subject to Regulatory and Government approval.
