With Vietnam, Malaysia and Bali now allowing quarantine-free entry for vaccinated travellers, customers can now enjoy two-way quarantine-free travel from Singapore to these exciting destinations.

Jetstar Asia’s CEO, Bara Pasupathi, said this was yet another exciting step forward as Singapore continues to reopen and make international travel more accessible.

“With the gradual and safe easing of quarantine requirements, combined with replacing PCR tests with the less-costly ART, we are slowly removing the barriers to international travel, which in turn is helping restore consumer confidence,” Mr. Pasupathi said.

“We know our customers have missed traveling to their favourite destinations over the last two years, not only for leisure and business, but importantly to reconnect with family and friends.

“We’re confident the safe relaxation of border measures, combined with our incredible low fares, will ensure international travel will once again be back on our customers’ radars.”

To celebrate the return of two-way quarantine-free travel between Singapore and Penang, Denpasar, Ho Chi Minh City and Da Nang, Jetstar Asia has special one-way fares at Jetstar.com starting from:
